

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Doosan Enpure Ltd is a Water, Wastewater and Waste to Energy contracting company working with International Water Authorities and National Water Company Framework partners.

The policy is designed to be as comprehensive as possible, however if you have any queries which are not answered or if you have any other questions about the policy, please contact your Human Resources Department. The purpose of this document is to set out Doosan Enpure policy for in line with employment legislation and Doosan Enpure's commitment to good ethic trading.

Doosan Enpure Ltd is committed to driving out acts of modern day and human trafficking slavery from within its own business and that from within its supply chains. The Company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation.

The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking.

The Company Directors and Senior Management shall take the responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation or within its supply chains.

This policy statement will be reviewed annually.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Avtar Jirh".

Signed

Date: 21st April 2021

Avtar Jirh
Managing Director